Plenty of Rainfall Alleviates Costly U.S. Drought But Too Late to Save Summer Crops

CHICAGO (AP) — Plentiful rain and cool weather have alleviated costly drought conditions throughout the nation and buoyed farmers' hopes for the fall planting season.

But an Associated Press state-by-state survey showed today, for most of the rich summer crops, the rains came too late.

Lack of moisture and parched soil caused an estimated $300-million damage to the normally bountiful crops of corn, soybeans, sorghum and wheat. Recent rains have aided fruit growers but livestock and dairy farmers are hard hit by arid pastures and lack of livestock fodder for the winter.

Some farmers are cutting corn for silage in an effort to alleviate the expected feed shortage.

Despite low ground-water supplies and lack of adequate subsoil moisture, most farmers are optimistic about the fall crops.

But in some scattered areas, rainfall still is desperately needed.

Eastern Colorado is "a powder keg," says Henry Christensen, state soil conservation director. With the weather till balmy and no rain in sight, the newly planted wheat crop is imperiled. Some wheat already is lying in the dust, Christensen says.

Here's a sectional rundown of conditions:

EAST
Virginia — Drought conditions have been relieved by rainfall, but it came too late to help crops. Water shortage has been relieved. Drought relief programs are in progress.

Connecticut — Soil dampened 5-10 inches with rainfall ending five-week dry spell. But effects of drought which began in April still prevail and more rain is needed. Drought worst since 1957 and second worst in this century.

New York — Two inches of rain last week in the mid-Hudson Valley area eased threat of forest fires. But that sector still is considered a disaster area because of the late summer drought and the damage to crops.

Maryland — The crop reporting service said soils have changed from too dry to too wet.

New Jersey — Drought was relieved by rains last week, but it came too late for vegetable growers. Farmers without irrigation have suffered. But the recent rains helped fruit growers.

Pennsylvania — The soil was moistened last week with a 1-3 in rainfall, erasing a two-month threat of excessive forest fires. Ban on fires in state park fireplaces lifted. But rain came too late for most summer crops.

CENTRAL
Minnesota — Drought broken several weeks ago, now state needs dry, warmer weather for corn and soybean harvesting.

South Dakota — Twenty-six counties have been declared drought disaster areas, where haying and grazing of soil bank acres are allowed. Use of idle acres are allowed. Rain two weeks ago helped moisture conditions, but it came too late to help the crops.

A Few Children's Questions That Parents Won't Answer Mostly Because They Can't

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A few children's questions that most parents can't quite answer: "Who hangs out the stars at night, and brings them in before morning?"

"If God made the world in six days and rested on the seventh, daddy, as the Bible says, why don't you go to the office on Saturdays?"

"What is algebra — and why?"

"Does it really help a snake to be poisonous, or doesn't it?"

"Why do you want to keep me a child forever?"

"Susie gets to wear long stockings and she is barely 11. Here I am, going on 12 already, and you won't let me wear anything but baby socks. Why, mommy, why?"

"Before we eat lamb, who takes off their coats? And how about chickens? Where do their feathers go?"

"Why are grownups so cranky, always complaining about noise and things like that? What's wrong with noise, anyway? Where does noise go after it gets through making sounds?"

"It's raining outside. What'll I

Charges LBJ Playing Game of Coexistence

By JACK BELL

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater came back today to the state where he nailed down the Republican nomination to accuse President Johnson of playing a "dangerous game" of coexistence with the Soviet Union.

The GOP presidential candidate sought to stir his California precinct followers into the kind of action that gave him a victory in the June 2 presidential primary. He lashed out at the Democratic President as a man who was afraid to take the risk of standing up to the Communists.

"In defense of freedom — and if ever the boundaries of the free world are to be enlarged — there will always be risk," he said.

County HD Meet Draws 62 Members

Home Demonstration members were challenged to be "different" and "creative" at a county meeting earlier this week.

Sixty-two ladies saw Mrs. Joe Stone from Nashville, transform a "junk-yard collection" of bottles into useful and decorative items. Amber snuff bottles were used for everything from flower containers to a part of a beverage set for witches brew.

Mrs. Stone said flowers as well as pills may go to the hospital in bottles as she displayed arrangements in vitamin bottles with card; your vitamins for today! Empty pill bottles were used as containers to organize supplies. Various shapes, and types of beverage bottles with the addition of bath salts, colored water, marbles and candy, were used as decorative accessories to pick up color in decorations.

With the addition of decals, Christmas ornaments, etc., the stage was set for special occasions entertaining. Mrs. Stone created unusual shaped candles by using unusual shaped bottles as molds, breaking the bottles from the hardened wax. Mrs. Stone says you need nothing elaborate to be creative and that any homemaker has access to materials.

Ladies may be designing corsages after instruction by John Sparks, Nashville Florist. Mr. Sparks, suggested to combine the corsage as an accessory, not as a gob. He encouraged the ladies to give the specific dress color with a corsage order. The florist designed a number of corsages to be worn differently. Mr. Sparks demonstrated using wire, tape, and ribbon in assembling the flowers.

He suggested to condition cut flowers, put them in warm water adding one teaspoon sugar. After about an hour remove flowers and put them in water to which chlorine bleach (1 Tablespoon to 1 gallon water) has been added. This process causes the flowers to take up water and prevents bacteria.

Mrs. Lois Adcock, District Director, Texarkana, encouraged the group to set goals; think and plan high. She suggested seven steps to achievement as Care, Purpose, Faith or Belief, Action, Constructiveness, Persistence, and Satisfaction.

Mrs. James Ellis presented a devotional period on Praise and Prayer. Group singing was led by Mrs. Velma Collier accompanied by Mrs. Neil Osborn.

Mrs. Ernest Ridgill, Council president, presided over the day's activities and reported on the educational trip to the State Home Demonstration Council meeting.

Hopewell Home Demonstration Club was in charge of registration.

Mrs. O. B. Hodnett, Mrs. George Hartfield, and Mrs. Marion Hubbard assisted with the pot-luck lunch. Mrs. C. L. Roberts offered the prayer.

Mrs. Roy Burson, Council Secretary, reports 13 clubs were represented. Guests attending were: Mrs. Joe Stone, Nashville; Mrs. Lois Adcock, Texarkana; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Sparks and daughter, Nashville; Mrs. A. E. Gerhardt, Texarkana; and Mrs. Vance Bledsoe, Texarkana.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Neil Osborn and Mrs. Ivan Bright.

Rev. O. W. Teague

The Rev. Otto W. Teague, pastor of the Asbury Methodist Church, Little Rock has been named district superintendent of the Hope Dist. of the Little Rock Methodist Church Conference. He succeeds Dr. Roy I. Bagley who was appointed last week as pastor of Bethany Methodist Church, Houston, Texas.

Mannie Stevens, President of Caddo Area Council Boy Scouts of America, today urged all men and women who had been connected with Boy Scouting since 1914 to attend the Campfire Celebration to be held in the Four States Rodeo Arena on Friday night. The Celebration will begin at 8 p.m.

All former Scouts and Scouters will be recognized as to the years they served in Scouting and each will be given a souvenir program of the 50th Anniversary Celebration.

Over 500 new Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers will be inducted by Brigadier General William B. Martensen, Director of Materiel, Second Air Force. These boys will begin the second fifty years of Scouting in Caddo County.

On Saturday morning a Campfire will be held for all Boy Scouts and Explorers in the Four States Rodeo Arena in Texarkana and at 10 a.m. a Cub Scout Fun Day will be held in Spring Lake Park. Following this at 11:30 a.m. all Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers and their leaders will be given a barbecue dinner as guests of Boy Scout Troop No. 1 of Texarkana.

State Income Withholding Is Proposed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An Arkansas Legislative Council committee recommended to the legislature today a state income tax withholding system.

The bill will be introduced in the 1965 session. If passed, it would mean that Arkansians in 1966 will pay their 1965 taxes in lump sums while 1966 taxes are being withheld from their incomes.

The double collection is expected to bring the state about $14 million in the one year.

The plan was drawn up by Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Arguments for the plan include the fact that transient employers and employees who are gone by tax filing time now would have to pay taxes.

Arguments against it are the double collection for one year — although no one would have to pay more taxes because of it — and the fact that it will mean extra bookkeeping for employers.

The bill was expected to receive approval of the full council later today.

Only one member of the committee that recommended the bill objected to the double tax paying feature. He was Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton.

Johnson Hoists 'Not for Sale' Sign Over TVA

By FRANK CORMIER

EN ROUTE WITH JOHNSON (AP) — President Johnson today rapped Barry Goldwater today for questioning John F. Kennedy's motives in handling the Cuban missile crisis.

Johnson, invading Kentucky and Tennessee, also took issue with his Republican rival on the question of dealing with the locally important Tennessee Valley Authority.

The President tacked a "not for sale" sign on TVA, part of which Goldwater has talked of selling.

In this third day of this six-day circuit through 11 states, Johnson got an early start by making a half-hour speech at a breakfast meeting of Democratic campaign chairmen in Louisville, Ky.

The President said he was "very sorry and very saddened" to hear recent charges that the Cuban missile crisis was manufactured by Kennedy for political purposes — "now when he's not here and can't answer for himself."

Goldwater has made such charge, but Johnson did not name his opponent in comment on the subject. Instead, he said:

"This is sufficient indictment of the author of that statement Continued on Page Three

Foreclosures on FHA Homes Hit New High

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreclosures of homes financed with FHA-insured mortgages are running at an all-time high. The same goes for house loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.

But, the situation is not cause for alarm, says spokesmen for both the VA and the Federal Housing Administration. They call it an adjustment toward normalcy, from shortly after World War II when realtors eagerly looked for houses to sell up to recent years when supply more nearly met demand.

The VA spokesman put it this way: "A big factor is absence of price appreciation in the past few years. A few years ago a mistake in judgment as to value of a house could be remedied by just holding on to it a year or two. That time has passed."

FHA and VA officials agreed that foreclosures are up or down with the economic pulse of a community or area and the individuals affected. When a military base or an industry shuts down, foreclosures in that area are up.

When a man is out of a job, he may have to let his house go. The next leading reason, from the individuals' standpoint, is death of a husband or wife, divorce, or costly illness in the family.

The foreclosure trend is not limited to mortgages insured or guaranteed by the government, but prevails, though to a lesser degree, throughout the house financing industry, according to an official of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

By far the biggest share of home financing now is through so-called conventional loans — those obtained from banks, savings and loan associations, private companies and individuals.

Data compiled by the board, which insures savings deposited with savings and loan associations, shows that in 1963 conventional loans were used for 77 per cent of all houses bought on time, while the FHA accounted for 15 per cent and the VA only 8 per cent.

Only World War II and Korean War veterans are eligible for the VA's house loan guaranty program, so its operations in this field are now declining.

Soviets Won't Pay But U.S. Is Blamed

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union accused the United States today of attempting to destroy the United Nations by insisting upon a showdown over Soviet refusal to pay for U.N. peace-keeping assessments.

Soviet Delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko raised the issue at an otherwise routine meeting of the U.N. Security Council on the application of Malawi, former British-ruled Nyasaland, for U.N. membership.

He said it is up to the United Nations to solve any problems confronting it, including who should be members and "also the question of whether the organization should exist or not."

He described as "a mockery of the principles of the U.N. Charter" a U.S. memorandum on the issue of paying peace-keeping assessments, presented Thursday.

The presentation of the U.S. proposal prompted a suggestion by some diplomats that the assembly postpone its scheduled Nov. 10 opening.

He said Rockefeller field workers would meet Sunday for a briefing and then go out into the state to conduct similar meetings. The training is preparation for the Nov. 3 general election.

Now! '65 Chevrolet

'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe—with new Sweep-line roof.

If what you see moves you, wait'll you take the wheel

(V8's with—GRRR!—up to 400 hp)

One look at those longer, wider lines tells you it's the kind of car you just couldn't buy before without getting into the higher price brackets. But one drive will tell you a lot more.

You've got your kind of engine going for you. There's an even half dozen available this year—anything you name from a quieter 6 to a V8 with the authority of 400 hp.

And the road feels like satin because our engineers came up with a new Full Coil suspension system, teamed it with a Wide-Stance design, and made our famous Jet-smooth ride even smoother and more stable.

On top of that, you've got the kind of space and comfort you'd expect to pay a lot more than a Chevrolet price for. And the kind of elegance, too. Like the look of fine walnut on the Impala's new instrument panel. The tailored wall panels under the frameless curved windows. And Body by Fisher craftsmanship.

Beginning to feel like it's your kind of car? There'll be no doubt about it when you drive the real thing at your Chevrolet dealer's.

See 5 beautiful shapes for '65—Chevrolet, Chevelle, Chevy II, Corvair & Corvette—at your dealer's

More Proposals Before Catholics

BY GERALD MILLER

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council today heard revolutionary proposals to put laymen alongside priests in Roman Catholic Church offices and to create senates of laymen to advise their bishops.

These proposals were made as the council fathers in St. Peter's Basilica of the Vatican historic schema attempting to define a wider role for ordained men and women in the life of the church.

Almost all 18 speakers today blistered the schema as inadequate and unacceptable in the modern world.

The Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia, Penna. in 1876 popularized the use of bananas.

"Giving God Our Best" was the subject. "Our Best" was sung by the group. The first part was given by Mrs. Virginia Braden. Second part by Pattie Burke. "Give God the Best of Our Gifts." Mrs. Clyde Johnson sang "Love is Why." The third part, "God Calls for the Best of our Labor" was given by Mrs. Virgil Huckabee. The fourth part, "God Calls for the Best of our Loyalty" was given by Mrs. Bohannon.

"Ready," was sung by the group. The closing prayer was by Mrs. Phillips.

A lovely plate and coffee and cold drinks were served to the 16 members present.

Coming and Going

The Rev. and Mrs. Joe Jones were in Conway earlier this week. He attended a Pastors School at Hendrix College, and they visited their daughter, Cookie, a freshman there.

Mrs. Fred McElroy was in Texarkana Wednesday and made plans for the Girl Scout Patrol Leaders Workshop to be in Hope Saturday at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Nick Jewell was dismissed this week from a Texarkana hospital where she recently underwent surgery. The room is now occupied by Mr. Jewell who had eye surgery Tuesday. His address: Wadley Hospital, Room 516.

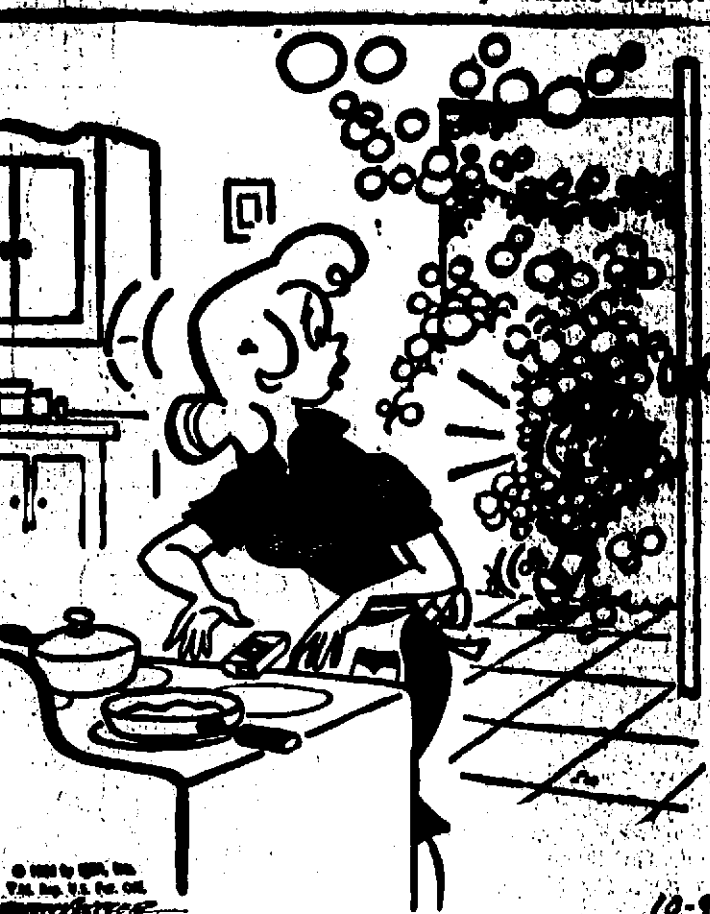

Those from out of town attending the funeral for Mrs. Finley Ward on Thursday, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ward and three children, Schenectady, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Harper Leiper and son, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. James Hannah Ward and family, Pierson, Wis., Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ward and family left Friday for their home in Schenectady, N.Y.

Miss Evelyn Winfrey and Mrs. J. W. Winfrey, Houston, have been visiting friends in Hope. The Winfreys are former residents.

"DEAR ABBY"

SAME OLD STORY!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am now a high school freshman and I have all new teachers, but I still have the same old problem. The very first day of school, the English teacher took one look at my name and said, "Oh, you're Marvin's brother. I am going to expect a lot from you!" All through grammar school the teachers either called me Marvin or Sidney because they had my two older brothers, and they were both outstanding students. I am not a bad student, but it is hard to live up to an older brother's reputation. I am so sick of being known as Marvin's brother, or Sidney's brother, that I wish I could go a thousand miles away and have my own identity. Why are teachers so stupid?

"MYSELF": Teachers are not so "stupid" as they are thoughtless. Almost everyone who has had older sisters or brothers has had to walk the same path. Perhaps you should be grateful that you had two good acts to follow, instead of two bad actors.

Dear Abby: I wish you would put something in your column about young couples who make a public display of their affection for one another. This lovely young couple has been married for four years now, and they still behave as though they were entirely alone. They are intelligent, well-educated, refined and sensitive people. Abby. It is good to know that they love each other, but their gestures are so brazen in the presence of others, that it is embarrassing.

Dear In Doubt: One who is concerned with HUMAN relations cannot "ignore the question of morality." Since morality is what sets us apart from the beasts, and you choose to ignore it, I suggest you direct your inquiry to a veterinarian.

Johnson Hoists

to let everyone know who they ought to vote for president." Johnson, in this part of the country, is emphasizing the TVA issue on which he and Goldwater clearly are divided.

And the President used this issue to emphasize a broader campaign argument — that he would build on the present in search of a better future whereas, in his view, his opposition wants to "repeal the present and veto the future."

Johnson, in a speech prepared for an audience in Nashville, Tenn., said:

"I believe this is a time to build up. And that is the main issue of this campaign."

"The issue is: whether the American people want to continue to build our nation on those policies and principles that have guided us for generations to new heights of greatness — or whether they want to tear down all we have worked to achieve."

Nashville was Johnson's second scheduled stop of the day, between visits in Louisville, Ky., and New Orleans. And, as the center of TVA country, it was the logical place to talk about the fate of that sprawling network of dams, power plants and fertilizer factories.

Goldwater has talked of selling some of these federally owned facilities and once sounded as if he wanted to dispose of them all.

"But I submit that the greater risk, in the face of Communist aggression, is to do nothing — still worse, to submit — and worst of all, to seek new and illusory accommodations with an antagonist that has never retreated an inch from a resolute purpose that contemplates the destruction of our world."

"On all three scores the present administration is playing a dangerous game — filled with risks for American security, and for the hopes of free men everywhere for a just peace."

Goldwater's attack on Johnson's international policies was made in a speech prepared for the World Affairs Council.

Goldwater is pinning most of his hopes of winning vital California, with its 40 electoral votes, on a "get out the vote" drive by his supporters in sprawling Los Angeles County.

Denison Kitchel, his campaign director, credited Goldwater's victory over New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the June primary largely to the efforts of hard-core supporters in rolling up an impressive Los Angeles County vote.

"That's the way we won the primary and that's the way we're going to carry California next month," Kitchel said.

Goldwater himself obviously believes that he is changing the minds of some voters by his campaigning. Neither he nor Kitchel accepts at face value the polls which show Johnson in the lead in almost every section of the country.

It is their belief that a great many people who are going to vote for the Republican nominee who class themselves as undecided is increasing, rather than decreasing, as the election nears.

The second step is to suggest that Johnson is covering up scandal within the administration. Goldwater mentions the Bobby Baker and Billie Sol Estes cases at almost every opportunity.

The Story: Because Dick Craig's sweetheart, Gail, is the daughter of a retired policeman, Lew Hedges, the group of Hugo Sander's executives decide to ask his advice on dealing with the kidnapers. Dick is to go to New York with the film made just before the kidnapping.

"After that" - Gail's laugh was quietly intimate, but a bit shaky - "I guess we won't have to be introduced all over again."

Leaving his traveling case on the stoop and going in, Craig wondered again why it was that Gail's father had been - well, tolerant of him, but not entirely friendly. Possibly Lew was naturally an aloof sort - he hadn't become particularly friendly with anyone else since coming to live with Gail - or perhaps, as a police detective, he had acquired a manner of self-effacement and a leaning toward suspicion.

"Something wrong, Dick?" He had noticed the tension in Craig. "Didn't your trip pan out?"

"It did, nicely. Something else is bugging me badly. I'll tell you about it in a minute. Mind if I use your phone?"

Lew gave him a help your self gesture. Gail watched him uneasily while he dialed. He was answered quickly by Allan Landall.

"Oh, so you're back," Landall said when he heard Craig's name. "We're all edged."

"That means you haven't heard."

"And a good thing too. We're not ready to move. You should see the folding money piled up here, whole desk loaded with it."

Gail's cream - yellow compact was sitting the canvas topped carport. He had phoned her from New York twice, without mentioning Sander, but she had sensed the anxiety in him and he had to parry her questions.

As he kissed her, he was aware that Lew Hedges, behind her in the living room, was watching them - not warmly.

THE NEW DISPENSER IS READY--

Hope, Crossett in District Game at 7:30

The Hope Bobcats make the long trip to Crossett tonight and unless they play up to their usual standard the return trip could be even longer.

Crossett is always hard to beat at home and added to the Bobcat troubles is the fact its homecoming for the Eagles.

Hope rolled up an impressive victory over Crossett last year but the teams are figured more evenly matched this year. Warren and Malvern hold victories over the Eagles. The Bobcats defeated Malvern last week but haven't played Warren yet. Crossett holds victories over Magnolia and Arkadelphia while Hope has also beat Prescott, DeQueen and Smackover.

The Bobcats will be scrambling to keep their district record intact and the Eagles will be trying to spoil that record.

The game should be rugged from start to finish and many Hope fans and the band will follow the Bobcats. The contest is set for 7:30 kickoff and homecoming festivities will be held at 7:15 p.m.

Figuring the World Series

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Figuring the Series:

The Boyer brothers, Ken of the Cards and Clete of the Yanks, are even-steven in batting. Each has collected one hit in seven tries for a .143 average. Defensively for the two games, Ken has handled eight chances flawlessly while Clete has made one error in 10 chances.

Roger Craig's appearance as a St. Louis reliever in the ninth inning Thursday was his first in series competition since the fourth game of the 1959 classic.

Hope Star SPORTS

Texas Going for Victory Number 15

By BOB HOOBING

Associated Press Sports Writer Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd wonders if it wasn't easier to declare independence from the Southeastern Conference than free a sputtering — if unbeaten — attack from mistakes. Football fans everywhere wonder how Navy will navigate without Roger Staubach, the Heisman helmsman.

Both questions will be answered when the Los Angeles Dodgers, working seven innings in a 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

The Yanks' Mel Stottlemyre, who yielded seven hits in defeating the Cards Thursday, broke into the majors on Aug. 12 with a seven-hit, complete game triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Saturday's probable pitchers appear to be evenly matched. The Yanks' Jim Bouton, during the regular season, had an 18-13 record, 11 complete games, four shutouts and an earned run average of 3.02. The Cards' Curt Simmons had an 18-9 mark, 12 complete games, three shutouts and a 3.43 ERA.

Twenty years ago today, the game. The winning pitcher was Max Lanier, father of the current San Francisco second baseman, Hal Lanier.

Yankees Even World Series at Game Each

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — The World Series was all even at one victory each today but the New York Yankees appeared to have a decided edge over the St. Louis Cardinals because of a rookie pitcher named Mel Stottlemyre.

The young right-hander's name was well known by every member of the Cardinals squad after he whipped them 8-3 with seven hits Thursday for the first Yankee triumph after five straight Series defeats.

"There's nobody like him in the National League," said Ken Boyer, the Cards' captain and third baseman.

"He's nothing but good," added Bob Gibson, the Cards' ace right-hander who lost despite striking out nine Yankees. "I would have had to be at my very best to beat him today."

"One of our scouts reported that Stottlemyre might be the best pitcher on their staff," said Redbird Manager Johnny Keane, "but I never pictured him that good."

No wonder the Yankees left Busch Stadium in St. Louis in a happy frame of mind. The next three games, following a day of rest today, will be played at Yankee Stadium. Stottlemyre is scheduled to pitch again Monday.

This prospect left Keane more disturbed than he cared to admit.

Even he would have to admit that the Yankees' pitching picture looked much brighter than the Cards'.

Keane is set for Saturday's answered tonight at Jacksonville, Fla.

At the other end of the same state, patched-up, hard-luck Miami — now known as "Tate's Tattered" — looks down the barrel of the fine California passing attack led by Craig Morton, the nation's No. 2 aerial marksman.

Navy resumes competition with Georgia Tech for the first time in 17 years following a double jolt. After being knocked from the unbeaten ranks by Michigan the Middles learned All-America quarterback Staubach, 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, can't play this week. Staubach will remain at Annapolis and rest shuffling ankle.

Bruce Bickel, a jaycee operative in 1963, moves into the vacant spot against a Tech team Coach Wayne Hardin describes as "agile, mobile and hostile."

Dodd has fretted more than usual about dropped passes, backs illegally in motion and fumbles — five of the latter against Clemson last week.

"The other mistakes will be corrected but fumbling is a different thing," Dodd said. "We'll just have to hope it eventually cures itself."

California makes its first Florida invasion with Morton, who has completed 53 passes for 660 yards, and end Jack Schraub, who has caught 22 for 248. Miami Coach Charlie Tate said the Bears don't exactly run like old ladies, either.

Tate has lost 15 players since June from a squad rated the Hurricane's greenest in 20 years. The latest pair were starters Charley Brown and Fred Brown, not related, dropped for disciplinary reasons.

Top-ranked Texas and Oklahoma meet in their 19th straight sellout battle in Dallas' Cotton Bowl. It will be televised by NBC starting at 2:30 p.m., CST. Texas is seeking its 15th straight triumph and seventh in a row in the series.

Two Big Ten struggles bound to influence the title picture sends fourth-ranked Ohio State to No. 2 Illinois, the defending champion, while seventh-ranked Michigan is at ninth-place Michigan State.

Currently John Hammond is operating at No. 1 quarterback in place of knee-hampered Mike Ringer for Oklahoma. Illinois' Fred Custardo, limping on a sprained ankle, should put on a great show with Ohio State's Don Unverferth if he's sound.

Eighth-ranked Nebraska sends Bob Churchill at quarter against South Carolina since Fred Duda has a broken leg.

Fifth-ranked Kentucky invades Florida State, only major power yet to yield a point. Sixth-ranked Notre Dame visits Air Force, third-ranked Alabama is heavily favored to knock North Carolina State from the unbeaten and ninth-ranked Arkansas from Baylor.

third game with southpaw Curt Simmons, 18-9, opposing right-hander Jim Bouton, 18-13 of the Yankees. After that he's in trouble.

He will have to come back with lefty Ray Sadecki and Gibson for the fourth and fifth games. Both were treated roughly by Yankee hitters in the opener.

On the other hand, Yankee Manager Yogi Berra has Whitey Ford primed for the fourth game, with his usual three-day rest, to be followed by Stottlemyre.

Ford didn't have it in the opener when he was beaten by Sadecki, but the veteran left-hander, winner of 10 World Series games, has been almost unbeatable in spacious Yankee Stadium.

The way Stottlemyre pitched Thursday, he's unbeatable any where.

While the 22-year-old slinker ball specialist was containing the Cards with only two outfield flies aside from their seven safeties, the Yankees pounded Gibson and three relievers for a dozen hits, including four doubles and a home run.

This gave the Yankees 24 hits in two games, three more than they accumulated in the entire Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers last year.

The victory was especially pleasing to Berra because, as he put it "It's my first one as a manager."

First baseman Joe Pepitone, standing nearby in the Yankees' clubhouse, laughed at Yogi's remark and said:

"Heck, Skip, you only lost one. Before this, I played in five World Series games and I was on the losing team in all of them."

Pepitone was the central figure Thursday in the Series' biggest controversy to date.

The ruckus occurred in the sixth inning with the score tied at 1-1. Mickey Mantle opened the Yankees' half of the sixth drawing a walk from Gibson. Elston Howard walked to second baseman Dal Maxvill. The count on Pepitone was two strikes and a ball when the first baseman took a half swing at an inside curve ball.

Plate umpire Bill McKinley ruled the ball nicked Pepitone on the thigh and awarded him first base. Gibson, Keane and the entire Cardinal infield rushed to the plate.

"The pitch hit him," repeated McKinley.

"The ball may have hit him," agreed Keane, "but we heard it hit his bat first."

"Pepitone took a sort of half swing at the ball," explained McKinley later, "but he didn't hit it. He just sort of half stepped toward it and the curve ball just came and hit him right there on the thigh."

McKinley pointed to his own right thigh.

All the Cardinals insisted the ball glanced off Pepitone's bat. "We all heard the ball hit the bat first," insisted Keane.

"Pepitone didn't make a move toward first until McKinley sent him to first base. I thought McKinley asked the first base umpire for help but both claimed he didn't."

"The pitch hit me on the thigh," said Pepitone. "Right here."

Then he pointed to his left thigh. No one told him that McKinley had pointed to his own right thigh in giving his version.

In any event, that disputed play was the turning point. Tommy Tresh followed with a single that scored Mantle with the tie-breaking run.

The Yankees added two more in the seventh, extending their lead to 4-1 on singles by Phil Linz, Bobby Richardson and Roger Maris, with a Gibson wild

Sellout as Porkers Take on Baylor

By BILL SIMMONS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) —

Unbeaten Arkansas, ninth-ranked in the nation, takes on the No. 1 passing team in the Southwest Conference here Saturday night — the Bears of Baylor University.

The Bears, who are 0-2 after nonconference games, have the second and fifth hottest passers in the SWC and the top receiver.

Arkansas is 3-0 after victories over Oklahoma State, Tulsa and Texas Christian University.

Terry Southall and Roger Mike Marshall are the throwers for the Bears. Both are sophomores.

Southall leads the league in total offense with 314 yards on 6 plays. Ken Hodge of Baylor leads in pass receiving with 245 yards on 13 catches.

Baylor also has Lawrence Elkins, the receiving end of the Don Trull-Elkins passing combination that led the country last season. Elkins is a flanker back.

The Bear attack is tops in the conference with a total offense average of 312 yards per game, all but 18 yards of it in the air.

The Razorbacks' sophomore-heavy defense did itself well against TCU last week, swiping six horned frog passes and holding TCU to 84 yards total offense.

With Gibson out for a pinch hitter, the Yankees salted the game with a four-run barrage, triggered a Linz' home run off reliever Barney Schultz.

Stottlemyre Jr. College Graduate

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Mel

Stottlemyre was graduated from Little Yakima, Wash., Junior College in 1961 and looked for some way to employ his lanky right arm.

To his surprise, the most talented, richest and most famous club in baseball—the New York Yankees — took an interest.

"I had no big reputation," said the 22-year-old pitcher, "and the Yankees were the only club that talked to me. I didn't know if I'd get another chance to sign, so I jumped at it. But I didn't get a bonus."

Late Thursday afternoon — three years later — the slim right-hander, with the hard-to-spell name, sat in the locker room at Busch Stadium in St. Louis, besieged by reporters. He was the toast of the Yankees.

Stottlemyre had just given the Yankees their first World Series victory after five straight defeats, and even the 1964 classic against the St. Louis Cardinals at one game apiece.

"This was the last thing that could have entered my mind last spring," he grinned. "I wasn't even on the Yankees' roster when they assigned me to Richmond."

The Yankees brought him up from Richmond Aug. 11 and he won nine games in five weeks to help pitch them to the pennant.

Mixing curves and sliders with his fine sinker, he stymied the Cardinals on seven hits for a 8-3 victory in St. Louis before the teams moved here for the next three games.

"I just pitched my own game," he said. "I surprised myself because I wasn't nervous, at least not after the first pitch. I felt I had good stuff warming up. I thought I'd do all right."

The resident of Mabton, Wash., had his troubles in the late innings against the hard-hitting Red Birds, but he came up with the right pitch at the right time.

Trailing, 4-1, the Cardinals opened the eighth with a single and double, but the Yankee pitching sensation got the next two men to ground out. He walked Bill White and then faced Ken Boyer, the National League's runs-batted-in leader.

Yankee Manager Yogi Berra said later if Boyer had gotten on base he would have brought in a relief pitcher.

But the Yankee hurler got Boyer on a force out and then pitched out of a minor jam in the ninth for the victory.
